

REV. AUBREY ADVERSE

In Brief: Chailey Heritage Foundation Chaplain.

Costume tip: Dog collar, improvised from strip of white plastic.

Notes for the Actor: Play him as touchy, cross-patchy and grumpy, but with a heart of gold.

To the Outside World: The Reverend Aubrey Adverse is argumentative and annoying, but wants the best for everyone in their own way, and they are a good Christian person.

The Hidden Truth: DO NOT REVEAL UNLESS YOU ARE DIRECTLY ASKED

- The Reverend Aubrey's father, who used to be a bishop, is currently serving a term in Lewes prison for embezzlement.
- He is desperate to beautify the Chapel with a new stained glass window.
- Didn't open the window at Reception.

Introductory Sentence: Good evening friends. My name is Aubrey Adverse, and I am the Chaplain of Chailey Heritage Foundation. Let's use this time snowed in together to think about those worse off than ourselves. The homeless, for example, or people falsely imprisoned. I must say, I do think the Chapel would have been a better meeting place than this reception area, because it is such a beautiful space. All it needs is for the stained glass window to be replaced.

Clue: When prompted please read out Clue 4 from the clue sheet.

You will be asked questions after each dialogue. Remember, when asked a question, you are encouraged to prevaricate, but you must not lie if directly challenged. You can bluster, act offended, cry, say that it's too painful to discuss, mislead, tell a long winding story, but you can't actually lie!

You can ask whatever questions you like; we have suggested some to get you started:
